

ORGANIZATIONAL EMBLEM: 171st AIR REFUELING WING

Significance: Ultramarine blue and golden yellow are the Air Force colors. The star refers to leadership; the blue drops to aviation fuel and within the Wing and Nebuly symbolize the overall mission and functions of the organization. The triangle represents the three Air Refueling Groups, and the points of the star, the eight supporting units within each group. The triangle also eludes to the Golden Triangle of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the unit's home area.

