Government Computer/Laptop

ANG assets that will be taken off base must be properly accounted for between you and your equipment custodian. Please complete an AF Form 1297 for Equipment Sign Out. Some examples of equipment that you may need in order to support teleworking is a laptop, a CAC reader (from your CSS) or keyboard with CAC, and a monitor if necessary. No equipment is permitted to leave base unaccounted for. All equipment must be signed out of Comm by your respective equipment custodian.

VPN (Cisco-Anyconnect or USAF)

You can access VPN training for mobile devices at https://cyber.mil/cyber-training/training-catalog/ Base Laptops: have Cisco Anyconnect and USAF VPN Client loaded. You can access military websites, CHES Email, Skype, and Share Drives. Personal Laptops: Desktop anywhere is available to use on your home machine.

Desktop Anywhere

Available to use on your home machine. It requires you to follow the Desktop Anywhere Win10 or MAC Installation Guide which is available on the CFP SharePoint page. You can access military websites, CHES Email, Skype, and Share Drives.

Share Drives (Y, O, L, R, K)

The local share drives can be accessed using NIPR, VPN, or Desktop Anywhere. If you need access to certain folders on a drive please contact the CFP.

CHES Email & OWA

Access your CHES email from a government computer on NIPR, VPN, or Desktop Anywhere. You can also access your email on commercial internet by using the OWA link: https://owa.us.af.mil

Skype for Business

Chat-based tool for keeping in contact with personnel from base. The status option lets you tell other members when you are Available, Busy, Away, etc. This tool on a Gov. Computer allows Comm to see what you see and better assist you with issues you may be having at home.

Air Force portal

Members using NIPR, VPN, or Desktop Anywhere, are able to access military sites and tools that we use every day. Access: https://federation.prod.cce.af.mil/pool/sso/authenticate/msg/19?m=GET&r=t&u=https%3A%2F%2Fwww.my.af.mil%2Fgcss-af%2FUSAF%2Fep%2Fhome.do

171st ARW SharePoint

Collaborative tool that can be accessed using NIPR, VPN, or Desktop Anywhere. The 171 ARW SharePoint site is a great tool for sharing information and unclassified documents that do not contain personally identifiable information. Access: https://org2.eis.af.mil/sites/34158/SitePages/Home.aspx
